DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of Group I in Paper No. 8 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the search would not be a burden for the examiner. This is not found persuasive because clearly the searches diverge for the respective Groups and the search would be a burden for the examiner.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claims 11-13 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in Paper No. 8.

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 7-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the admitted prior art (APA). APA is the discussion on pages 1-2 of the specification. Page 1, lines 16-17 state that it is known 'to micronize the drug' when referring to drugs in general. Page 1, last paragraph state that '...micronization can be..an open-circuit pulverizing system'. Thus applicants' admit that it is known to micronize drugs with an open pulverizing system. Applicants' invention is the micronization of a specific drug with an open pulverizing system. It is held that it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify APA by treating applicants' specific drug, since it is merely a specific drug being used in a known system. The remaining limitations would then have been obvious design choices only based on several factors such as desired end use of the product.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
